

Molly Moses

Chief Communications Officer

Molly Moses joined the Ohio Housing Finance Agency in 2015 and serves as the Chief Communications Officer. The office of Communications and Marketing is responsible for upholding and advocating OHFA's mission through news releases, publications and media relations. Before joining the Agency, Molly worked for Hyatt Hotels and Resorts and Interstate Hotels and Resorts as a Meetings Director and Convention Services Manager and also helped to successfully launch and brand a multimillion dollar beverage company serving as the Director of Marketing and Communications. Molly holds a Bachelor of Arts in Arts and Media Management from Columbia College Chicago, a professional certification from Duke University in Digital Media and Marketing and a manager certification from Franklin Covey in Business Management Strategy.