

Christine Proebstl

Chief Executive Administrator

Christine Proebstl joined the Ohio Housing Finance Agency (OHFA) in early 2003 as a loan closing specialist in the Office of Multifamily Housing. She was then promoted to be the Board liaison and executive administrator in 2005. Before joining OHFA, Christine was administrative assistant to the assistant director of the Ohio Department of Development. She started her career in public service in the Office of Governor George V. Voinovich where she worked as a scheduling assistant.

Proebstl graduated with honors from Cascade Business College in Bellingham, Washington, with an associate degree in fashion merchandizing and retail business.
