

FY 2024 Participating Jurisdictions and Consortium Jurisdictions

Participating Jurisdictions are states and local jurisdictions that are eligible to receive federal HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME) funds. All states are automatically considered Participating Jurisdictions, but local jurisdictions are eligible if the unit of local government is a metropolitan city, urban county, or consortium receives a formula allocation of more than $750,000 (or $500,000 if Congress appropriates less than $1.5 billion) in HOME funds as outlined in 24 C.F.R. §92.50. 60% of HOME funds are allocated directly from HUD to eligible local jurisdictions with the remaining 40% to state governments.
